The Opening of the Miracle Church of God in Christ Bedford

Bedford: Councillor Brian Dillingham

Councillor baptised 1-6-71 Record

COUN. Brian Dillingham, a member of Bedford Town Council for Harpur ward, was among 10 candidates who were baptised at the Church of God in Christ in Alexandra Road, Bedford, on Sunday.

The 300-strong congregation, largely West Indian, saw the baptismal service, which entails total immersion. It was conducted by Pastor Francis Vaughan.

Coun. Dillingham, aged 30, has been closely associated with the church for several years and is a Sunday School teacher there.

He said after the service: "An increasingly rare commodity in the world today is sincerity, and this quality has always greatly impressed me in the members of the Church of God."

He added: "The congregation is mainly West Indian but the church is open to anyone to join."

The new mayor, Coun. Mrs. Winifred Fowler, is to be invited to attend a service at the church. Among those who have already done so are Bedford's MP, Mr. Trevor Skeet, and two members of the town council, Ald. Arthur Jones, MP, and Coun. Miss Monica Still.
